Giardina Group takes over De Stefani

Giardina Group has acquired Italian firm De Stefani Valerio & C snc, a manufacturer of sanding solutions.

De Stefani will continue to operate at its headquarters in Giussano with the existing management and sons of the founder Valerio.

The acquisition of De Stefani continues the "Giardina Group 2030" project. This industrial plan defines the group's strategies and range of solutions to build machines and plants in the various business sectors in which the group operates, including wood, glass, plastic, automotive, composites and aerospace.

Stefano Mauri, owner of the Giardina Group, said the acquisition had been planned for some time.
